

Regarding the Software Included in this Firmware

The software included in this firmware is comprised of the software modules developed by both Canon and third parties.

Software Developed by Canon and Free Software

Software developed or created by Canon and accompanying document is protected by copyright law, terms of an international convention and any other governing laws.

This product uses software modules under copyright by third parties and distributed as free software. Some of these software modules are subject to the GNU General Public License v2 (GPL), GNU Lesser General Public License v2.1 (LGPL) or any other license.

Display of License Information of Free Software Modules Included in this Firmware

The license information required to be displayed for the free software modules included with this firmware is saved in the download file. If you want to check the license list, please see the ThirdPartySoftware.pdf file in the `thirdparty_software>LICENSE` folder. Furthermore, if you want to check the license for each of the free software modules, please see the text file stored in the `thirdparty_software>LICENSE` folder.

Obtaining Source Codes of Free Software

Some free software modules require the acquisition of the source code in order to distribute the executable form of those software modules. To obtain the source code for the software modules, please contact the Canon Regional Headquarters for your country of residence.
